Tanana Valley Farmers Market Holiday Bazaar Rules and Agreement

Due to the bazaar's venue at the Carlson Center, some of the rules vary from the regular TVFMA Policy Manual. Please read them carefully. Vendors with food items are particularly affected.

1. The TVFMA requires that all items for sale must be Alaskan grown, made or produced in Alaska in order to participate in this event. This invitation to participate in the TVFM Holiday Bazaar is for sale of items that qualify to be sold at the Tanana Valley Farmers Market during the summer season. If you have questions concerning whether the items you plan to offer are allowed, please contact the Market Manager at tvfmarket@gmail.com or 456-FARM.

2. Display spaces for the bazaar will be assigned on a priority basis.

FIRST PRIORITY: Active TVFMA members who attended the 2026 market at least 50% of the time during the 2026 market season.

SECOND PRIORITY: Active TVFMA members who attended the 2026 market season less than 50% of the time.

THIRD PRIORITY: Non-participating market members.

FOURTH PRIORITY: Non-market members.

3. The booth fee is $175 for participants who are paid members of the Tanana Valley Farmers Market Association, and $225 for those who are not Market members. Two vendors are allowed to share a space. Each vendor must send in a separate application with a note telling us with whom they would like to share a space.

4. Homemade, perishable and non-perishable food items are permitted at the bazaar. However, due to the Carlson Center rules, food must be in a sealed package for take home consumption. No food may be prepared or assembled on site, no cooking or heating of any kind is permitted in booths. Prepared beverages, even sealed, are not allowed to be sold. Free samples are permitted but must be less than one ounce in size. A list of ingredients for each food item offered must be available at your table or labeled on your packaging. All DEC and homemade food rules regarding your food items and samples must be followed and it is your responsibility to research and comply with them.

5. Due to space considerations, vendor participation in the TVFM Holiday Bazaar is limited. Some spaces may include an electrical outlet.

6. All booths will be 10' by 10' with drapes dividing the spaces. Each booth will have access to one six-foot table and two chairs. Vendors are responsible for any other display items, decorations, change, trash can, signs and/or posters for their assigned space. Absolutely no balloons allowed. Each booth must have a 2.5-pound ABC fire extinguisher. Vendors must remain set-up until 5 p.m. the day of the bazaar unless they are completely sold out.

7. Vendors are responsible for setting up their display in their assigned space. Set up time is 7 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. the morning of the bazaar. All Vendors must load in through the rear service doors at the Carlson center. If you do not check in by 9 a.m. the morning of the bazaar, you will be considered a no-show and your space will be sold to someone else. Displays must look neat and attractive. Table coverings are required. Please hide all storage containers. Vendors are responsible for cleaning their space after the bazaar is over. All clean-up must be completed by 8 p.m. the day of the bazaar.

8. You may not display items in such a way that interferes with other sellers' space or access to their space. Noise resulting from your display must not interfere with other vendors.

9. You may not have children under the age of 14 running your booth during the bazaar without an adult present. This does not include set up or clean up.

10. An ATM will be available on site. WiFi access will be available to vendors with a password provided by the Carlson Center.

11. Any and all city, state or federal licenses, inspections or permits as required by law of any vendor shall be obtained by the vendors at their own expense prior to the opening of the show. If you are unsure of the requirements, please consult the following links www.commerce.alaska.gov/dnn/cbpl/BusinesslicensinR.aspx or www.fairbanksalaska.us/citv-businesslicense-information/.

12. Refund policy for the holiday bazaar is as follows: Cancellations received prior to November 26th 2026 will receive a 100% refund of their Holiday Bazaar fees. Cancellations after November 26th refunds will not be issued.

13. The Tanana Valley Farmers Market Association is not responsible for any liability or loss arising out of the operation of your exhibit and/or sale of your goods or merchandise.
